Thank You

Hello M'dears

I hope this finds life treating you well?

I have to cancel our meeting on the 21st of this month, unfortunately.

Even sadder than that, now that we have achieved so many of our aims, it is time for Accessible Belper to pass the Accessible action mantle on to others. Consequently, although we can be a resource for others to use, we will not be as proactive in the Belper community.

It is great that we have managed to raise so much awareness of disabling conditions throughout our town. I have also been privileged enough to work with some wonderful people along the way and made some brilliant friends (I have managed to lose some too. For this I can only apologise. I have wanted to get so much done!)

I will be writing a longer report soon which will give a much better report of all our achievements. I really feel like we should have a big celebratory party! Right now, all I can say is a big

THANK YOU
