

ACCESSIBLE SHOWS

The lights will be left on low and you are free to talk, move around or sing along! There will be a 15 minute interval. Tickets are £7.00 including free tea, coffee and biscuits and accompanying carers go free. There will be time before the screening to socialise with other audience members to get to know the cinema and our Dementia Friends staff will be on-hand if you need anything.

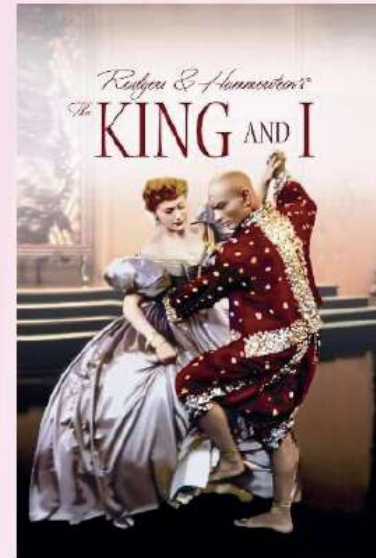

Please be aware that unfortunately due to constraints of the building, the Ritz does not have wheelchair access to the auditorium. If you require any other information regarding access, show info or would just like a chat about these shows feel free to call or email us.
