

Order of Service for Remembrance Sunday

GATHERING

Call to attention

Minister I lift up my eyes to the hills – from whence will my help come? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 121.1,2

God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46.1

We meet in the presence of God.

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

We also remember this day the life of our late Sovereign Lady QUEEN ELIZABETH, and her many years of faithful service to this country.

REMEMBERING

Mayor We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away and we remember especially today those whom we knew and those whose memory we treasure.

British Legion They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

Young person At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

Last Post

2 Minutes silence

Reveille

Minister: We remember before God, all those named on this memorial that we may honour their memory and the offering of their lives in the service of our country.
May this be a visible and perpetual reminder to all those who pass by.

Stand at ease

LAYING OF WREATHS led by British Legion

PRAYING TOGETHER

Minister Ever-living God

we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations.
Amen

Minister Let us all join together in the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen

CALL TO ATTENTION

to the departed rest,

And the blessing of God Almighty,
